Appomattox County polled her largest vote Tuesday—2018 voters found the way to the ballot box. With this immense vote the election was fairly and impartially handled by the judges and few challenges were made, and the few challenged and refused the right to vote, no doubt failed to meet the requirements of the law.
 At Stonewall precinct Mr. Hiram Martin held up the voting for awhile when his right to vote was challenged by Rolf Hoxley and Joe Euton—the matter finally being settled by refusing him the right to vote on the grounds that he was a Republican.
 The organization directed by Senator Ferguson showed its teeth and power over the voters of the county and defeated every candidate opposing it with decisive majorities. These majorities registered in favor of the ring which controls and holds every election office by this election is sufficient evidence that the people endorse its official conduct in the past and desire that it shall continue to dictate the political policies of the county.
 The nominees have our congratulations and this paper will support them all at the general election should opposition show its head.
 Just how such a change could be brought about within four years is not yet explained, as practically all voted who made the effort and there is no evidence of wrong doing at any of the precincts so far as known—A sudden change has been brought over the Appomattox voter. What was it? Tell it if you know.
 In Buckingham County Gannaway has a majority of 249, but the Appomattox majority for Terrell was too heavy to elect him.
 Hubbard for Clerk 408; Jno. Snoddy for Sheriff 80; Griffin for treasurer 239. It is claimed that the organization wing of the party was decisively defeated and that Senator Ferguson was supporting the defeated candidates.
 The official vote of Appomattox follows:

Forget your political troubles and wish the victors well.
 Political enmity should not sour the whole system. Take off your hat to the victors, feel satisfied.
 After the smoke of battle has cleared away the wounds inflicted must first be healed.

That Injunction

An injunction bill was presented to Judge Hutcheson at Charlotte C. H. Monday by attorneys Gordon & Gordon for D.
 N. Twyman, A. H. Clement and others praying that for irregularities and violations of the primary law by sundry officials of Appomattox County the primary be postponed until the Court could investigate the complaint.
 A large company of election officers and other county officials were present. After argument on the question of law the judge denied the injunction and sustained the demurrer of defendants—that the grounds stated for the injunction were not sufficient in equity. Sheriff McKinney after adjournment of Court declared that the grounds of the charges against his activity were false, but admitted that others were true. As we see and view the situation now the officers charged in the bill with wrong doing, were misled by their jealousness and did not intend to commit any crime against the law, but were simply active partisans doing all they could for the election of the ring ticket.

 FUTURE"

PERSONAL MENTION

I wish to publicly acknowledge my indebtedness and gratitude to the 723 citizens who steady-ly and loyally supported my candidacy and I will not soon forget it. I submitted my claims to the people, the verdict is against me and I bow to their will with no ill feeling toward those who opposed me, and congratulate Col. Flood on his decisive victory—My business interest will demand all of my energy for the future.

NOTICE

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the voters of Appomattox County for the splendid majority they gave me in the Democratic Primary held on August 2nd, and my many friends for their active support of my candidacy.
